

Twenty Years of TODAY IN THE WORD

Today in the Word is a “quiet time” companion for daily Bible study and prayer. The monthly booklets are offered free to donors and friends of Moody Radio of Hilo.

Hawaii donors may request First Class mail delivery by calling 1-800-DL-MOODY (356-6639).

Today in the Word may also be read on internet-enabled computers and mobile phones. Go to <http://hilo.mbn.org> and click on the Today in the Word logo. Here's a letter from the TIW editor:

Dear Readers,

Every believer could echo the words of those Greeks in John 12:21 who approached Philip with a request: “Sir, we would like to see Jesus.” We trust that our devotional helped you see Jesus more clearly through the study of His Word in 2007.

This year, in Today in the Word, we've explored 6 books of the Bible, we've delved into such topics as Prayer, Loving Your Neighbor, and People of the Gospel, we've looked into the character of God as Parent, as well as the character of believers in the Scripture who “finished the race.” And every month, you shared with us this adventure in Bible study, you supported Moody Bible Institute, you prayed with us and for us.

This devotional wouldn't be possible without you! As our 20th anniversary year comes to a close, we'd like to thank you for your support, prayers, and friendship. We are excited to start the third decade of TIW ministry together with you — to see Jesus in His Word and in His people.

*From HISTORY OF THE SANDWICH ISLANDS MISSION
By Rufus Anderson, D.D., LL.D.
BOSTON: Congregational Publishing Society, 1870

January 1824

The gospel was introduced into Hilo and Puna early in 1824. Messrs. Ruggles and Goodrich were the pioneer missionaries. They were accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Blatchley, for a temporary stay; Messrs. Ellis and Chamberlain, on a missionary excursion; and by Mr. and Mrs. Ely, going to Kaawaloa, in the neighborhood of Kailua. On their arrival, they found none to welcome them among the natives, but obtained shelter in a large thatched canoe-house, which the Oahu chiefs had appropriated to their use.

Next day was the Sabbath, and Mr. Ellis preached to a large number of people, in another similar building, which the forethought of Kaahumanu had secured for them. The service was interrupted by the entrance of a large pet hog, with huge tusks, belonging to Kaahumanu, and bearing her name. The animal had the privilege of tabu, and the natives, not daring to resist its entrance, made a boisterous retreat; and it was not until the keeper had succeeded in quieting the brute that the congregation resumed their places, and the preacher was able to proceed.

HILO SETTLEMENT AT THE TIME OF LORD BYRON'S VISIT IN 1823.

This being the windward side of the island, the rains were frequent and abundant. Of course the arable lands all had a luxuriant growth, and the country being mountainous, the landscape was beautiful and grand, as seen from the bay of Waiakea.

Schools were commenced, and native teachers brought from other islands. In two months a house was erected for the families by order of Kalanimoku, and a church finished in the frail Hawaiian style. This was the ninth church erected on the Islands, in the first four years of the mission. A few years more, and Hilo became the most interesting of all the Christian districts.*
